*... there is music
wherever there is harmony,
order, or proportion.*

*Sir Thomas
Browne*

Harmony is produced by its Principle, is controlled by it and abides with it. Divine Principle is the Life of man. Man's happiness is not, therefore, at the disposal of physical sense. Truth, is not contaminated by error. Harmony in man is as beautiful as in music, and discord is unnatural, unreal.

Cooks And Custodians

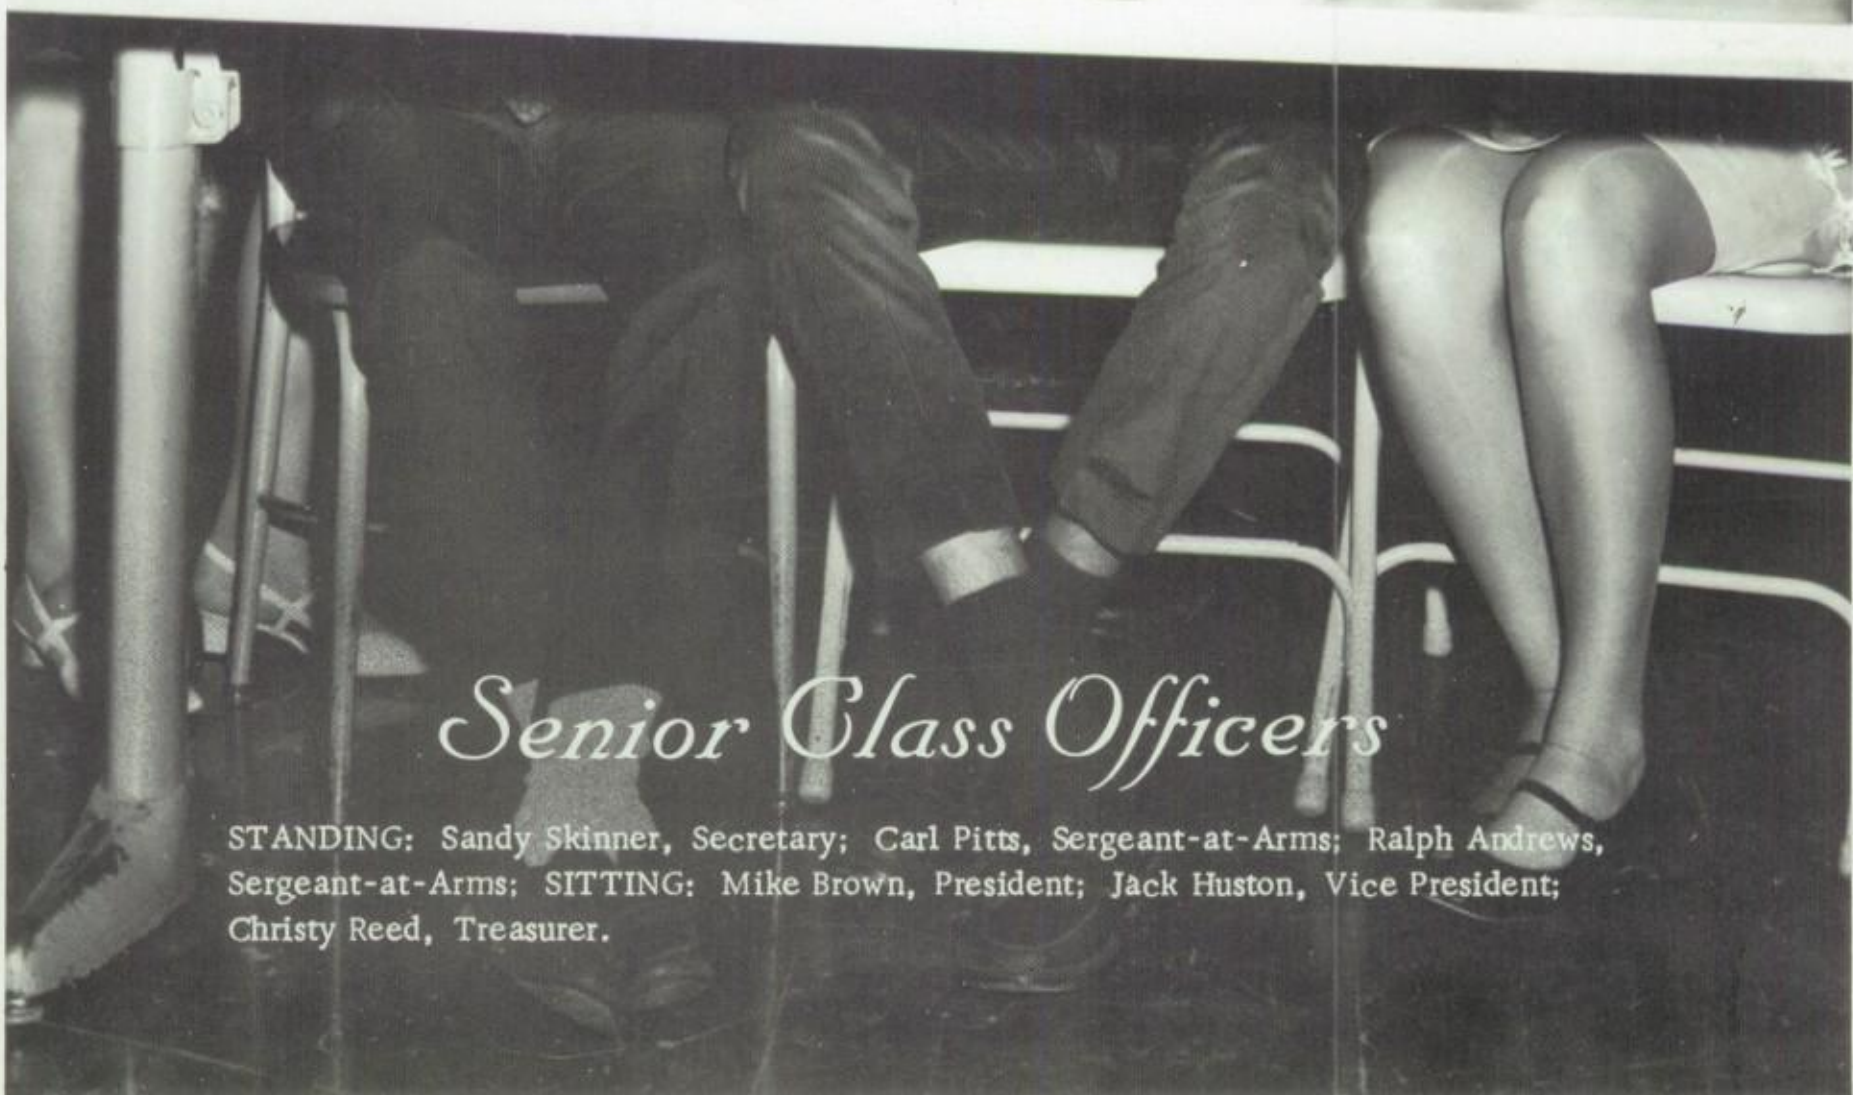

This year the custodians have done a great job of keeping our school's appearance up and thereby increasing the students' pride in their school. The cooks have done the impossible by quieting the clamoring, hungry kids each and every noon.

Class Prophecy

As a born wanderer I have seen some faraway places, but I always like to get back to my old home town and see all my old friends, so I stopped at the metropolis of Filer this year, 1984, on my way to Afghanistan.

When I got off the plane at Joslin International Airport, the first people I met were KELLY SHEPHERD and MONTY SHOBE who were laying over on a flight to London where they were to set up a new safety pin factory. As I wandered into the huge airport, I was almost exterminated by a luggage truck driven by RON MAXWELL who was being pursued by JUANITA CALLEN, who wanted her luggage.

After being driven into downtown Filer by STAN HONSTEIN in his jet car, I bought a newspaper and settled down with a cup of coffee, served by LADONNA SCHROADER. The first time that caught my eye was a political advertisement calling for the election of MIKE BROWN for governor of Idaho and BRUCE ANDERSON as Mayor of Filer. Another interesting time noted that the research team of DEBRA SCHAEFER and SHIRLEY YODER, had found a cure for the common cold.

That evening I dropped by my favorite night club, The Pink Elephant, owned by RALPH ANDREWS and ROBERT BLAKESLEE. The show that night was presented by the sensational group, "The Mouths", composed of my old friends RUBY GREENE, SHIRLEE JOSLIN, SUSAN FLEENOR, CLAUDE DAVIS and EVERETT MESSNER. I paid my bill to the manager ALVIN ALLEN and then went to a party given by millionairess ARLENE BLASS.

I enjoyed the party immensely. I saw many friends, CINDY ANDERSON and JANET PATTERSON, the owners of the national newspaper, The Citizen Record. PAM MEYER, The fashion designer was there, so were CHARLOTTE BRAKE and BETTE BEARD, The TV personalities. GLEN ORTHEL invited me to see his and CLYDE WRIGHT'S 50,000 acre farm, and actor WAYNE HOAG presented me with a free pass to see a play that he, TERRY LANCASTER, and SANDY SKINNER were starring in.

One afternoon I dropped in to see cooky mogul, RANDY EATON. He took me out to see MIKE CHANDLER, BILL COATES, and RICK GARTNER who play football for the Twin Falls Eagles.

While at the game I met the president of the University of Southern Idaho, CARL PITTS, who told me about the school and took me to meet my friends on the faculty, JACK HUSTON, ROBERT RUHTER, SUELLEN NELSEN, SHERYL REINKE, CAROL MEYER, JEANNETTE RYDULCH, and BECKY ULRICH.

Just before leaving I went to a reception at the Kurwait consulate where the U. S. was represented by JOHN HOF LAND and KENT LEIRMAN. Among my copatriots in government service I found ELAINE ORDAZ, the social secretary, and GEORGIA WHITE, a secret service agent. Doing the translating were PATTY KNEFEL and BECKY RUSZLER. CHRISTY REED was there because of her eminence in international law. She was accompanied by her co-worker ALLEN CHILDS. Running the catering service were SANDY NOH and DOROTHY WORLEY. The main topic of conversation was the fact, LAURA DANOS and DONNA RATHBUN were opening a branch of their supermarket chain on top of Mt. McKinley.

Doing my shopping in preparation for my trip I stopped at DAVID BOSS and KEN MEYER'S automotive store. Later I went to get my clothes from PAT FENDER'S and RAY AUFDERHEIDE'S famous tailor shop. I was waited on by RHONDA KENDRICK, who assured me that my order would be looked after personally by manager DONNA OLIVER. My last stop was at the travel agents where I was ably assisted by ROSANNE SCHULER, and LARUE SIMMONS.

As stewardesses MARGARET DRAKE and MADONNA FINE welcomed me aboard the plane flown by TOM CARTER, I could not help but reflect how my friends had had their ups and downs but had succeeded in their fields.

As I leave Filer I say good bye and good luck to the class of '69' and may your dreams succeed.

Clyde Wright

Clyde is a 6 foot, 185 pound senior. He has played Varsity Football for three years at half-back position. Clyde gained much recognition by being one of the better backs in the league. He plans to play college football.

Mr. Wrestling

Glenn Orthel

Glenn is a 6 foot, 245 pound Senior, who has participated in wrestling for the past four years. This year he was co-captain of the wrestling team. His seasonal record was 14 wins, 3 losses. He won 3rd place at District and went on to the State Tournament.

Mr. Basketball

Ron Maxwell

Ron is a 6'2", 170 pound Senior, who has played Varsity Basketball for the past two years. His shooting has been very impressive and Ron has been placed on the All-District and All Conference teams. He also handles the ball well and is a good rebounder.

Honor Society

The Honor Society student must have an accumulative grade point average of 3.5 since their Freshman year of high school. Students are recommended for Honor Society the latter half of their Sophomore year. They are then voted on by a faculty committee which considers the student's character, scholarship, leadership, and service to the school. The students are required to take certain classes in their high school years.

CAT TRACKS

The paper of Filer High School was run a new way this year. The staff attempted to put out a paper every two weeks; and each time there was a whole new staff. Each student had a turn at some position on the paper. The staff was composed of the third period Journalism class.

The entire staff and Mrs. Thompson, Advisor. NOT SHOWN: Bette Beard, Oleen Crawford, John Hofland, Debbie Schaefer, Dennis Holmes.

Appreciation

The Wildcat Staff would like to extend a sincere thanks to all who have helped to make this yearbook possible, to the faculty for their cooperation, to Mr. Pettygrove for the pictures, and to Mrs. Thompson who has helped us through many problems.

This school year has been one of overall harmony for the students of Filer High School. As the halls grow dim and the classrooms quiet, we hope this book will bring back the memories of this year and hold Filer High School forever in your memory.

The Wildcat Staff
